SALMON RIVER MINES.—From a letter to the Montana Post, we gather the following news under date of Grantsville, Idaho, December 29th:

Since my last, a new gulch has been discovered by Messrs. Buckhart & Co., who have organized a new district called "Webfoot." The gulch is about three miles long, and prospects twelve cents a pan wherever a hole has been sunk.

We have had a shooting scrape. A man named Winehamer came here in search of a woman whom he claims to be his wife. On his arrival he discovered that his truant wife was living with another man. The parties meeting in McNutt's store, an altercation ensued in which lives were threatened and a pistol discharged, which, however, did no damage except frightening some of the visitors.

On the following morning (24th) while Mr. Winehamer was standing in front of Mr. Mulkey's saloon, in Leesburgh, some enterprising individual who probably thought the town was not complete without a graveyard, fired through a window on the opposite side of the street, the ball passing through Mr. W.'s left arm, struck the butt of his revolver, and glancing off entered his body below the heart, inflicting a painful but it is thought not a fatal wound. He was carried into the saloon where his wounds were dressed. There being no surgeon nearer than Bannack, the ball has not yet been extracted.

A person of the female persuasion, from Helena, made a raid on the windows of Mulkey's saloon last night, demolishing things generally. She seemed well versed in shillelah exercise. Cause, something connected with the shooting affair.

We have good news from Rapp's gulch. Messrs. Pope, Moore & Co. have washed out of fifteen pans $34.20 of as pretty coarse gold as a man need look at, and out of one hundred and sixty pans of dirt taken off the gravel above the bed rock, got $48, making an average of twenty cents per pan: Among the lucky owners of ground in this gulch are J. A. Cook and R. T. Harris & Co.

During the last week gold was discovered in Eureka Hill, above the main creek. The discoverers say it prospects from five to twenty cents through eight feet of gravel.

PROJECTED REFORM.—The Albany correspondent of the New York Citizen says that a bill is about being introduced into the New York Legislature for establishing a "Board of Moral Health" to correct the indecencies of the American stage, and to secure that none but plays of an improving character shall be brought before the ingenuous youth and blushing maidenhood of that most happy and, "hereafter to be, most straight-laced city." He says Ben. Wood is said to approve the project highly. The two plays, or spectacles, "Black Crook" and the "Cendrillon." The writer says it will be argued by the Hon. Mr. Murphy that such spectacular exhibitions of half nudeness and complete lewdness do more to promote public immorality in one single evening than could be accomplished by all the "pretty waiter girl saloons" during a whole year, on the hypothesis that these saloons do not corrupt woman, for the women they employ, in every ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, have been corrupted before descending into such miserable retreats. Nor can they be considered as much increasing the immorality of the rougher and coarser sex, for none but men already far gone in depravity could make it a habit to frequent such places. The two plays alluded to are dramatized from Miss Bradden's two novels, "East Lynn" and "Lady Audley's Secret."

FATAL AFFRAY.—From the Atchison Free Press of the 28th ult., we learn that a fatal affray occurred at Ogden, Riley county. The following are the particulars:

On the 21st inst., about noon, five or six soldiers from Fort Riley, came into town. Part of the company went into a saloon; a sergeant and one man went to a private house—of one Bostwick—and being somewhat under the influence of liquor, made insulting parley and demonstrations towards Mrs. Bostwick, when the City Marshal, (a brother of Mrs. B.) arrived and interfered in an official capacity. By the order of the sergeant the private with him shot the City Marshal through the heart. The other soldiers coming up, one was shot through the neck, dangerously, and one wounded in the knee. The City Marshal—Felix Boler—died in a few moments. An inquest was held on the 22d inst., and five soldiers were delivered over to the Sheriff and lodged in jail at Manhattan. The one shot through the neck is in the hospital at Fort Riley—recovery doubtful. An examination before Esq. Harper has just closed, which resulted in committing the sergeant and two of the men for trial at next term of Court. The others were discharged.

THE WAY TO SETTLE TITLE.—Passengers by the Belmont stage, which arrived at midnight, brought in some particulars of the bloody affray which occurred a few days ago in the vicinity of Pine Creek, on the route hence to Belmont. It appears that two brothers named Steinenger, Germans, were in possession of a ranch, which they were improving in some degree. Other two brothers, named Andrews, laid claim to the same tract of land. On Saturday last the brothers Andrews, appeared on the ground armed with double-barreled shotguns, and ordered an Indian who accompanied them to throw down the fence, erected by the Steinengers. One of the latter was at home, who advanced towards the aggressors armed with a revolver. What conversation occurred between them we have not learned. It is alleged that one of the Andrews leveled his gun at Steinenger, who instantly discharged his pistol at him. The second Andrews immediately shot Steinenger in the back of the neck, inflicting a severe wound. Steinenger then fired at him, wounding him mortally. The Andrews first shot is reported dead; the other brother was hit fatally; Steinenger is said to be in a critical condition.—Reveille, Jan. 8th.

THE WHITE HOUSE.—Last year the gas for the President's House and the Capitol cost $98,000. The fuel for the President's House cost $12,000; the painting of it $8,000; the repairing of the conservatory $16,000; and the re-furnishing of the house $66,000—all of which is calculated to give an impressive idea of the size and appointments of the establishment for which so many candidates are in training.

Salt Lake City, November 5, 1866.

Religious Freedom.

In yesterday's VEDETTE we noticed some of the Wyman's which constitute at once the basis and arguments of the Legislative Memorial, asking Congress to repeal the Anti-Polygamy law of 1862. In addition to those Field delivered, both opinions, Justice Miller delivered dissenting opinions, in which Justices Chase, Swayne and Davis concurred.

House Committee on Banks had under consideration to-day the propositon to substitute legal tender Treasury notes for the present National banking system; they will consider it further at their next meeting. The proposition seems to meet with considerable favor.

There is no foundation for the statement that Government has received information of large quantities of government securities being sent home for sale, on account of apprehended difficulties growing out of the Impeachment movement. The Finance Committee of both Houses give it a flat contradiction.

The Committee on Ways and Means intend to proceed immediately to consider the Tariff bill, but do not expect to be able to report it before two or three weeks.

The President sent in a batch of nominations to the Senate, among them Senator Cowan for Minister to Austria, vice Morton, removed.

In the House, a resolution was offered declaring that there should be no greater currtailment of the National currency than $18,000,000 during the year 1867, which should be inclusive of compound interest notes falling due, and when the amount exceeds forty-eight millions excess is should be filled by the issue of Treasury notes.

Cook, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a resolution suspending the operation of the twenty-fourth section of the Act of the 24th of February, 1864, which authorizes the payment of loyal slave owners for slaves used during the war by the Government.

A bill was referred, allowing the franking privilege to members of Congress until December 1st, 1867.

Washington, January 14.

In the Senate, the bill regulating the tenure of office has been under consideration.

Petitions were presented for the passage of the pending Tariff bill; for an increase of the pay of army officers; for reconstruction on the basis of equal rights; against curtailment of the currency, etc.

Sumner offered an amendment, requiring that all officers and agents of the Government whose salaries or fees exceed $1,000, must be confirmed by the Senate, which was opposed by Lane, who said he would prefer it to be an independent proposition, and it was referred.

Washington, January 14.

Cook, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a joint resolution for suspending the operation of the twenty-fourth section of the Act of the 24th of February, 1864, which authorizes the payment of loyal owners of slaves used during the rebellion. Sherman said the bill contemplated nothing unconstitutional or revolutionary. Of the 2,000 removals made by the President last summer, not 100 have been reported to the Senate.

Mr. Buckalew offered a resolution that it is the duty of the Government to give effect to the moral sentiment of the nation through all its agencies for the purpose of preventing a further introduction of coolies into this hemisphere. Adopted unanimously.

At Mr. Buckalew's suggestion, Mr. Hendricks withdrew the amendment to let the debate proceed on the general merits of the bill.

Mr. Howe moved to strike out the words "expiration of term or other cause" of the second section, which reads as follows: "That the President shall have power to fill all vacancies which may happen during the recess of the Senate by reason of death, resignation, expiration of term, or other lawful cause, by granting commissions, which shall expire at the end of the next session thereafter. The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Williams spoke generally in favor of the bill. Executive session adjourned.

Washington, January 14.

Additional House: Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, asked leave to offer a resolution against any greater curtailment of the National circulation than four millions per month during 1867, and that for the compound interest notes authorized to be withdrawn in excess, that an amount of legal tender notes without interest ought to be substituted. The House refused to suspend the rules—yeas, 74; nays, 68. So the resolution was not received.

Mr. Hooper rose for a suspension of the rules to allow the introduction of a resolution that it is not expedient to increase the amount of National bonds and notes for circulation beyond the $300,000,000 authorized by law.

Mr. Kendrick amendment to strike out the provision that "no vacancies can be filled except when the advice and consent of the Senate, and the duties of such offices be offered without salaries or fees, to such officer as may by law exercise such powers," was defeated by Hendricks, Cowan, Williams and Fessenden. Sherman said the bill contemplated nothing unconstitutional or revolutionary. It passed 107 against 35.

Mr. Banks offered a resolution that it is the duty of the Government to maintain all its agencies for the purpose of preventing a further introduction of coolies into this hemisphere. Adopted unanimously.

The bill for the admission of Nebraska was taken up, and the question of imperatival subject to the veto of the President was debated at length. The House seconded the previous question by a vote of 68 to 57, but neither could command a majority.

The Herald's Richmond special says General Lee has addressed the following letter to the Governor of Virginia:

"I have the honor to inform your Excellency that I have this day taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, and have applied for the restoration of my rights of citizenship. I have been induced to take this step from a conviction that it is due to the interests of the people of Virginia, and in accordance with the advice of friends whose judgment I respect. I have not been influenced by any consideration of a personal character. I have no regrets for the past, and no wish to recall it. The thought that has governed me is that which I have constantly expressed to my fellow citizens, that their only safety was in the restoration of peace and friendship between the States. I have never seen any reason to change the opinion I have thus frequently expressed to them. I have never counseled any man to do what I have not done myself. I have always endeavored to inculcate the duty of yielding to the existing state of things, and of striving to restore peace and harmony to the country. I have been actuated by these motives in the course I have pursued, and I hope your Excellency will see in them sufficient reasons for the favorable consideration of my application."

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

ADVERTISING.—The VEDETTE is the oldest newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in the mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in those four Territories.

INCIDENT.—A vendor of clocks in this city related to us an amusing incident which occurred a few days since at the store of the vendor. A person entered and inquired for an "alarm" clock; one was shown him, but the purchaser seemed to overtop his pile, said he desired to know whether he could purchase the "alarm" without the clock. The vendor was somewhat "alarmed" at the inquiry, but recovering from the shock occasioned by such an unique question, explained to his customer that it was necessary for the other parts of the clock to accompany the alarm movements. In order to set the time for the alarm to strike. It being explained, another difficulty existed in the mind of the verdant youth, and he then said that he was disposed to purchase the "alarm" clock that would not disturb the other members of the family, but awaken only himself. The astute vendor then recommended the only remedy he knew of, which was that he should stop the ears of the rest of the family with cotton, and then the would-be purchaser might attain his object. The verdant youth scratched his head, and left, saying he would call again, and would then know what he did want.

CORRECTLY.—We have made it an invariable rule when by mistake a duplicate copy of a piece of telegraphic report comes into our possession, to immediately return it to the "electro" telegraph office, in order to avoid the inconvenience that may accrue from a missing piece. We had occasion to do so on Monday last, but the favor was not reciprocated by a contemporary, who retained a duplicate page, which they must have known belonged to another office. Had it not been for the kind and obliging clerks in the "electro"-telegraph office, our readers would have been deprived of a portion of the latest eastern news. We trust the same neglect of courtesy will not occur again.

OFF FOR MONTANA.—Mr. Bohm, of the firm of Bohm & Molitor, leaves to-day for the purpose of establishing a branch office of the banking business of that firm in Helena. We commend him to our neighbors as a gentleman who possesses the entire confidence of his community, where he has been located for some time, for his strict integrity, joined with his scientific and business qualifications, which are so absolutely necessary for a faithful discharge of the duties of an assayer.

LUNCH.—At the Bank Exchange to-day, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock, a lunch will be served up for the accommodation of the patrons of the establishment. This is introducing in this city an old custom observed in our Eastern and Western cities, but in mind, it is a custom "more honored in the breach than the observance."

WANTED.—Cash paid for old door and padlock keys, etc., at J. R. Sumner's second hand store. 4t

Brigham Young's Last Wife.

The Milwaukie Wisconsin, of December 6th, we find the following:

"Among the well known to many residents of Milwaukie, and we may add throughout the State. After various wanderings the Doctor has turned up in Utah, and been admitted to the privileged circle of the Mormon Prophet, President Brigham Young. In a letter from the promised land, dated under date of Nov. 22d, as follows Brigham Young's last wife, and of Salt Lake City. We judge from the tone of the writer's letter, that he intends to join the Mormon Church, and hopes to become a ruling elder in the communion of the Latter Day Saints, with a numerous complement of wives.

"We saw the President's last wife at the Tabernacle on Sunday last. The lady's name before marriage was Maria Folsom. Her former residence was at Council Bluffs, Iowa. She is a superious looking young beauty of the Roman rather than the Roman order, and is very superious and jealous. Like all passionate jealous women she is noble hearted. Miss Folsom is Brigham's last wife and pet. Two of the President's daughters play at the theatre, and are great favorites with the better portion of the community. One is married, Mrs. Clawson, and the other, Miss [illegible] is single, but is being waited on by a distinguished editor. Ah! you ought to be there—the Mormons are just the best people in the world. I have not learned the exact number of wives and children President Young has, but altogether he has the largest family of any man living in the civilized world

* * * * *

"We have received every courtesy since my arrival from all parties, especially from the editor of the Mormon Press."

SILVER MINES.—The Denver Gazette of the 9th, says: From Charley Geon; who has arrived from Ward District, we gather the following particulars of matters in that locality: There was about two feet of snow on the ground, with the weather cold and severe. Nearly four hundred persons are in the district, and men constantly arriving. The Ward Company are making preparations to start their mill and have paid off their road hands. Cushman & Co.'s ten stamp custom mill is running night and day, and the ore put through gives a rich average. The Long's Company are re-furnishing their mill. Mr. Thompson are running their mill night and day on Stoughton ore with good results. Several companies are sinking on their claims. Bixby is doing well with the old six stamp mill on Sucker ore. Ten thousand dollars has been offered and refused for No. 2, on the Columbia. Another very rich lode has been struck by a Mr. Mc-

NEWS ITEMS.—The Indians in the Owyhee mining country still continue their depredations upon stock, and fights with Indians are noted in every paper from that section. The division of Idaho has again been brought before the Legislature of Idaho. The division of Washington Territory is also being discussed at Olympia, the object of which is to unite the counties along the Sound to Oregon, and the counties east of the mountain ranges of Oregon to form one State.

The papers say that this has been the severest winter ever experienced in that section of country. The snow is only a few inches deep and thawing.

GOVERNOR GOVERNOR.—Governor Low, of California, seems to have a mania for pardoning the convicts of San Quentin. The California papers contain frequent accounts of the Governor's leniency. The last batch mentioned in the Sacramento Union of the 7th are fifteen in number, who were sentenced for various crimes, to serve from one to seven years, a portion of them are returned to the State prison,
